PREFACE.

1930242

On petition received from the Rumford Historical Association, the City Council of Woburn, in May, 1890, passed the following vote: —

"Ordered, That the Mayor be and hereby is authorized to have printed twenty-five hundred copies of his manuscript record of deaths, and that the expense therefor be paid out of the Miscellaneous Department."

And it is further

"Ordered, That the printed copies be deposited with the City Treasurer, who shall dispose of them to any and all persons for twenty-five cents a copy, and all sums received by him therefor shall be placed to the credit of the Miscellaneous Department."

In pursuance of this vote the following pages are now presented to the public. In order to add to and perfect the record, I engaged Miss J. Gertrude Menard to assist me in comparing it with the data to be found on the gravestones in both the Salem Street and Calvary Cemeteries. Our comparison has resulted in the addition of over four hundred names to the recorded list, and in the discovery of a number of discrepancies between the clerk's records and those chiselled on the gravestones. These additions and corrections have been inserted in their proper chronological place, and for the purpose of distinguishing them from the town clerk's records, the word "Gravestone" has been added to each additional or corrected entry.

In order still further to complete the Woburn record of deaths and to preserve for all time memorials which are slowly but surely passing out of existence, — memorials, too, the most sacred and valuable of all which have been left to us of the fathers, — I have added as an appendix to the record of deaths a transcript of the epitaphs to be found in the First and Second Burying-Grounds. For this transcript I am indebted to my friend, Mr. William R. Cutter, whose copy of the epitaphs in the First or Park Street Burying-Ground was made almost a quarter of a century ago. The changes and removals which have taken place in the Second or Montvale Avenue Burying-Ground since Mr. Cutter revised Mr. Nathan Wyman's manuscript list, in 1870, have somewhat disarranged the chronological order which was then prepared. As, however, the epitaphs of each yard are separately indexed, this slight disarrangement will not interfere with the value of the list for reference.

The recent visits which I have made to the several graveyards in this city, and the inspection of many of their half-obliterated monuments and crumbling gravestones have brought forcibly to my mind the truth of the lines,—

"Monuments themselves memorials need."

We spend large sums of money to perpetuate on polished marble the lineage and virtues of a departed friend; yet it is only a question of time when this single record will become obliterated and forever lost. How important it is then to have those memorials duplicated by being spread on the printed sheet, thus making a record and the only record which can defy "the tooth of time"!

* Nahum Sargeant, a graduate of Dartmouth College, 1784, and a brother of Rev. Samuel Sargeant, of Woburn, died while on a visit at Chelsea, Mass., Oct. 7, 1792, aged thirty-four years. He was minister at Reading, Vt., from 1787 to time of death. He preached in Woburn occasionally, and his first appearance here as a preacher was on Sunday, Oct. 31, 1784, when, in the words of Esquire Samuel Thompson's memoranda, "Mr. Sargeant's brother preached." He also preached on June 5, 1785, when he was described by the same authority as "Mr. Sargeant, the younger." Mention is made of his preaching for his brother, in Woburn, in 1786, 1787, 1789, and 1791. In September, 1786, Mr. Samuel Sargeant was sick with a fever, and on Sept. 3 there was on that account "no preaching"; but on other Sabbaths of that month, and in October, Mr. Nahum Sargeant preached for him. In the latter part of November, 1787, the Rev. Samuel Sargeant was absent on a journey to assist in the ordination of his brother Nahum at Reading, Vt., and there preached the sermon for the day. This sermon was published and a copy is preserved in the Woburn Public Library. Mr. Nahum Sargeant died of the small-pox, in October, 1792, his death being noted in Mr. Thompson's lists. At the time of his death the disease of small-pox was prevalent in this vicinity. The copy of the above sermon was originally the property of the Rev. Mr. Marrett. The following is its title: "A sermon delivered at the introduction of the Rev. Nahum Sargeant to the pastoral care of the church and congregation in Reading [Vermont], Nov. 28, 1787; by his brother Samuel Sargeant, A. M., pastor of the First Church in Woburn. — Windsor; printed by Hough and Spooner, MDCCLXXXVIII." Text, Isaiah lii. 7; (22 pp.) — W. R. Cutter.

"NOTES FOR A CONCISE HISTORY OF WOBURN."

By WILLIAM R. CUTTER.

Ancient Public Burial-Grounds. — In Woburn proper there are two ancient public burial-grounds. The first and oldest of these is on Park Street, Woburn Centre, and is probably coeval with the first settlement of the town, 1642. The second burial-ground is on Montvale Avenue, and, like the other, is situated near the Common. It was first opened as a parish burial-ground in 1794, and was subsequently purchased by the town in 1824.

The First Burial-Ground. — The earliest mention of this burying-ground in the Town Records is the comparatively late date of 1662, and there are no stones now standing earlier than one double dated 1689–90. The number of epitaphs in 1866, the latest one being dated 1856, was 269, which is four less than were there in 1847. One was erected in 1872, to a person dying in 1792, and one was erected in 1875, to a hero of 1775. Adding these two to the four of 1847, the number is increased to 275. Of early references to interments in the yard may be cited the following from the first volume of the Town Records: The town debtor in 1678, to Gershom Flagg, "for Cutler's grave," 3*s.* 6*d.*; May 5, 1679, the selectmen appointed John Houghton, Senior, "to ring the bell, to dig graves, and to cleanse the meeting-house."

Two collections of the inscriptions have been made, one by Nathan Wyman, in 1847, and another by W. R. Cutter, in 1866. Mr. Wyman's list was published in the "N. E. Hist. Gen. Reg." II., III., 1848–9, but for want of space all the material sent was not printed, and the literal transcript, which was expected, did not appear. The Cutter transcript is a literal one, with explanatory notes for each epitaph, and is in manuscript. The number of headstones now standing, of date previous to 1700, is 12 to adults, and 12 to young children. The age given of the oldest person of this number is 82; there are 4 of age from 72 to 79; 2 among the 60's; 1 among the 50's; 2 among the 40's; 1 among the 30's; and one only 19 years. The ages of the children are from a few hours, or 1 day, to 5 years, viz., 5 of age less than 7 days; 1 whose age was reckoned by weeks; 3 whose ages were reckoned by months; and 3 whose ages were reckoned by years. These stones are of the enduring nature of those of the older persons, all being imported apparently from the old country.

The ground has been subjected by action of the town to some encroachments of its original territory; and, owing to these impairments, some gravestones are known to have been relocated. It may be supposed, however, that these changes have been small, and that they have effected little change in the appearance of the yard. The principal entrance was formerly by a passageway under the rock beside the Central House, and another entrance, in the direction of Park Street, was cut off with bars, being the way much used in former times leading to a spring, or watering-place, near the junction of Park and Centre Streets. The encroachments, the past entrance near the Central House, and the way to the watering-place appear on a plan belonging to the city, by C. Thompson, of date 1855.

The number of interments represented by headstones, during the period from 1700 to 1750, is 128. This number may well be used as an illustration of the corresponding growth of the town itself. Of this number there are in all 49 male persons, of ages from 17 to 94 years; 9 were over 70; 23, from 50 to 70; 12, under 40; while 5 were between 40 and 50 years. Of women there are 47, of ages from 20 to 98 years; 6 were over 70; 12, from 50 to 70; 20, under 40; and 9, from 40 to 50 years. The mortality of women under 40 appears large, nearly half the whole number. Of persons below the age of adults the number is 32, of ages from 2 days to 15 years; under 10 are 24; and 8 were over 10.

In connection with this period is an interesting discovery. The only table monument in the yard is not the monument of Elizabeth Cotton, as might appear, but the monument of Nathaniel Saltonstall, Esq., who died in Woburn, June 23, 1739. It is a red sandstone slab, on which are indentations where a coat-of-arms and an inscription on tablets of lead or stone were admitted, but which, like the original base of brick, long ago disappeared. Four granite pillars now support it in a horizontal position and on its top reclines the slate slab of Elizabeth Cotton (1742), a niece of Saltonstall. The executors' probate account of Saltonstall's estate, filed with his will and inventory, Middlesex County registry, of date June 25, 1739, presents amounts of considerable size on behalf of several persons; such as, Ebenezer Kendall, of Woburn, for digging a grave, and Isaac Snow, of Woburn, for coffin and plates, charges amounting to more than £10. Nathaniel Lamson, a stone-cutter of Charlestown, presents a charge of £26 for a tombstone. Thomas Moulin, an out-of-town party, charges for use of pall and porterage, and for making a brick grave, — bricks and lime and workmen, — a sum amounting to more than £10. The items of tombstone, brick grave, etc., were contracted in the latter part of July, 1739, the whole being completed on the 29th. The Boston Weekly Newsletter for June 28, 1739, under the heading of "Boston," has the following notice: "Last Saturday night, died very suddenly at Woburn, Nathaniel Saltonstall, Esq.; he was younger brother to the late Governor Saltonstall, of Connecticut. A gentleman well respected among us." He removed to Woburn before 1738. (See Woburn Journal, Jan. 19, 1883.)

The slate slab of Elizabeth Cotton, now evidently removed from its site, contains an epitaph unusually singular, of such phrases as she "died a virgin," and, "if a virgin marry she hath not sinned," etc. A search at the Middlesex registry fails to discover any papers of administration on her estate.

The headstones from 1750 to 1775, the remaining years of the provincial period, are proportionately numerous. The number erected to persons over 25 years of age is 60, — 30 males and 30 females. Of the males, 2 were over 90, — 1 in his ninety-sixth year; while 8 males and 9 females were over 70. The oldest female was 81; 10 females were under 50, and 11 from 50 to 70. Of persons under 25, the number was 24, including 4 married females; 15 were over 16; 1 was 6, and 8 were under 5 years. The age of the youngest was 4 days. The number was about equally divided as to sex. There is a noticeable decrease in the number of headstones to children at this time, and adulatory inscriptions are more common.

From 1775 to 1793 the stones are mostly those of aged persons; the number to children, from 1775 to 1787, being 6, of ages from 6 weeks to 3 years. The whole number to 1793 is only 36, or at most 38, counting two of recent erection. A new burial-ground was opened in 1794, and a small number, perhaps not over 3, were removed from this to that. The comparatively fewer stones after 1775 show that the Revolution bore hard upon the prosperity acquired by the people under the provincial system of government. The war began at their very doors, and little was left afterwards for luxuries of any kind.

On March 5, 1810, the town granted the request of the heirs of Col. Loammi Baldwin to build a tomb, the yard in which it was to be built being left discretionary with the Standing Committee. This yard was selected, and a granite obelisk over the tomb contains a marble tablet to Hon. Loammi Baldwin, died 1807, æt. 63; "erected by his children." Inscriptions still more recent are those of Wyman Richardson, Esq., 1841, and John Fowle, 2d, 1856; the latter on a marble monument, erected in memory of James Fowle, Esq., and his descendants, on a lot deeded to the town. Asahel Porter, killed at Lexington, April 19, 1775, was commemorated by a marble stone, erected April 21, 1875, by the local Grand Army Post.

In July and August, 1874, a series of articles by the present writer appeared in the Woburn Journal, on the subject of this and other Woburn old cemeteries. These were intended to describe their appearance, and gave a general account of the gravestones and the persons interred beneath them. The subject was still further referred to in the Woburn Journal, May 1, 1875; and an article was printed on the subject of the Woburn Cemetery on Salem Street, ibid., Jan. 9, 1875. From these articles and the lists of inscriptions, as well as the gravestones themselves, a good idea may be obtained of the value of these monuments as a record of the past. It had been the writer's intention to present a list of the names of those buried beneath these memorials, but his limits have already been exceeded.

The Second Burial-Ground. — This was originally established by the society of the First Parish in Woburn. The subject was agitated early in 1793, and at first Ensign Ichabod Parker, Mr. Daniel Reed, and Capt. Joseph Brown were appointed a committee to see about "a new burying-place." The Standing Committee of the parish at this period appear to have charge of both burying-grounds, from allusions in the records to the old one. On April 14, 1794, the parish voted to purchase of Capt. Joseph Brown the land that had been Zachariah Brooks's, about one acre, for their purpose, for a sum a little less than £40. The three deacons, Samuel Thompson, Obadiah Kendall, and Josiah Richardson, with the Standing Committee, were to fix a fence about the enclosure, make a gate, and arrange the ground for interments. They were also to determine when the new burying-place should be opened, and the old one shut up. Certain members of the Baptist Society in the limits of the parish soon desired a share in the benefits of burial in the "new burying-yard," by paying their "proportionable part"; and on April 13, 1795, the privilege was granted. Later in the same year, the Baptists, not owning any right, were allowed liberty of burial, on the payment of half a dollar a grave. Later still, April 11, 1796, all Baptists were admitted joint proprietors, on payment of their proportional part of the expenses. In 1799, in respect to what the parish will do "respecting the burying-yard," it was decided that the Standing Committee shall "take care" of it, and "conduct that affair" as they think best for the interest of the parish. After the separation of Burlington, in 1799, the town and the First Parish were practically one in the effect of their action in the matter of the burying-grounds. Thus the town in 1806, and following years, chose committees to take care of the meeting-house and burying-grounds. The parish was incorporated as the First Congregational Parish in 1816, and in 1823 the parish granted permission to Dr. Rufus Wyman to erect a tomb, under supervision of the Standing Committee. At the same time, in 1823, the parish took measures to sell their burying-ground to the town, and this was soon accomplished for $162.50.

The earliest dated stones are removals from the older yard, or elsewhere, and many later ones have been removed to the Salem Street Cemetery, opened in 1845. Interments have rarely been made in recent years. Many useful characters, deserving of respectful remembrance, are interred here: Fathers of the Revolution; four victims of the fall of the Clapp house-frame, July 14, 1807; school-masters, doctors, magistrates, the wife of a minister, and many others. There are verbatim lists of the inscriptions here as they were in 1847, and have been since. They were the joint work of Dr. Benjamin Cutter and Nathan Wyman, continued and recopied by the present writer. The number of headstones is about 350; some containing inscriptions to at least two persons. Dr. Cutter's number of inscriptions was, in 1847, counting by individuals, 365. The one of earliest date was 1789. Of persons over 70 there were 78; 7, over 90 years. The number under 20 was 105. Of unknown age, 2. Of women, there are 121 over 20 years; the number under 40 and over 20, being 47, — a very slight decrease in the mortality of that class over the corresponding period of the previous century. The Richardson family in Dr. Cutter's list presents an interesting instance of longevity. The number of persons of that name represented by inscriptions was 50. Of these 5 were over 90; 2 were 96; over 70 and under 90 were 16 persons; under 20 were 4 only. Of the remaining 25, there were 12 between 40 and 70; and 13 between 20 and 40. Of the last number, 2, one aged 30 and the other 31, were killed outright by accidents connected with the fall or destruction of buildings. In B. Cutter's list are some twenty-four inscriptions that are not in N. Wyman's; and in the latter, to 1847, are some accessions not found in the former; but, otherwise, they correspond fairly well. Mr. Wyman continued his work after Dr. Cutter ended, and thus obtained additions. The whole number, by individuals, to 1870, is 388. Since 1845, the removals have been far greater than the accessions, and some monuments have perished, from the character of their materials, wood having in some instances been used. Since 1848, there is one stone to a person of 24, another to one of 48; others to persons of 71, 81, 88, 83, and 97 years: total, 7.

EPITAPHS,

OLD BURYING-GROUND, PARK STREET, WOBURN CENTRE.

INTRODUCTION.

This collection of inscriptions from the gravestones now standing in Woburn Old Burying-ground was gathered by the undersigned during the fall of the year 1866. The time when this ancient depository of the dead was first opened for interments is not definitely ascertained. Its existence in 1662 is mentioned. (Vide Town Records, Vol. I., page 51.)

It was doubtless extant some time prior to that date. The oldest stone standing, i. e., bearing the earliest recorded death, is dated, old style, "1689-90" (epitaph 1). Capt. Edward Johnson, author of the "Wonder-working Providence," and the most influential of the founders of Woburn, is supposed to be interred in this yard. No stone to his memory is found. When, during the present century, the wall and the town pound were built on the western side of the yard, several skeletons were exhumed. The earliest interments are thought to have been in this part

In 1848-49, a list of deaths as found on the stones in this enclosure was published in the "New England Historical and Genealogical Register" (Vols. II. and III.), from material furnished by Nathan Wyman, Esq., town clerk. For want of space, but not in accordance with that gentleman's first design, a literal transcript of inscriptions was not attempted; and in that production, names, dates, ages, and poetry, almost without exception, were alone presented.

Rev. Jabez Fox, abridged from Rev. Timothy Alden's "Collections" (1814), Vol. I., 225: —

Rev. Jabez Fox, probably a native of Cambridge Mass., and a lineal descendant of John Fox, the martyrologist, graduated at Harvard College, 1665; settled, as colleague, with Rev. Thomas Carter, the first minister of Woburn, Sept. 5, 1679; and fell a victim to the small-pox in Boston, Feb. 28, 1702-3, aged 56. The skeleton of a discourse, delivered by him at Cambridge, July 23, 1678, taken from the delivery by Rev. Nathaniel Gookin, then a student in Harvard College, but afterwards pastor of the church in Cambridge, is preserved. Mr. Alden concludes his article with a copy of the above manuscript, which is again presented in Sewall's "History of Woburn," pp. 100, 143. (Vide Sibley's Harvard Graduates, Vol. II., pp. 195-200.)

The following signature of Mr. Fox was written while witnessing a deed of sale in the year 1698. His autograph is rare: —

(Vide Woburn Journal, June 5, 1869.)

Rev. John Fox, son of Rev. Jabez Fox, of Woburn, graduated from Harvard College in 1698; was grammar-school master of his native town for several years; succeeded his father in the ministry at Woburn, Oct. 4, 1703, and continued there until his death, Dec. 12, 1756, aged 77. He was unhappily deprived of his eyesight for about fifteen years before his death, but, however, preached occasionally in this time, and often catechised the youth of his parish, who used to resort to his house for this purpose, and to receive his pious counsels and exhortations.

Rev. Edward Jackson was his colleague for a considerable time, and died. Rev. Josiah Sherman, also, was ordained his colleague about a year before his death.

Mr. Fox married Mary, daughter of Hon. Edward Tyng, of Massachusetts, brother of Col. Jonathan Tyng, died in Woburn, 1724 [epitaph says], who, being appointed governor of Annapolis, was taken on his passage to that place, carried to France, and there died. (See Coll. Mass. Hist. Soc., Vol. X.) Mr. Fox was author of two sermons extant on Sam. i. 14, 15, occasioned by the great earthquake of Oct. 29, 1727.

Mrs. Mary Fox survived her husband eight or ten years [died February, 1741], but no stone has been erected to designate the spot of their interment. Issue: —

1. John, in early life went to Ireland to live with a wealthy relative.
2. Jabez (Hon.), spent his days at Falmouth, now Portland, Me.
3. Thomas, a goldsmith, lived in Boston.
4. Edward, lost at sea on his passage to England.
5. Jonathan (Col.), lived and died in Woburn.
6. Mary, married Rev. Habijah Weld, Attleboro'.

Rev. Habijah Weld was third minister of Attleboro', where he was settled [illegible]. Mr. Weld was a man of extraordinary virtues and preached [illegible] years. He received from his parishioners an annual salary of two hundred and twenty dollars, and the use of a parsonage lot which furnished him with wood, and a little pasture. With a scanty patrimony he purchased a small house and farm; and with these means he educated fifteen children, and was noted for his hospitality and acts of charity. "Frugal Clergyman." (Hayward's Massachusetts Gazetteer, p. 29.)

7. Judith, second wife of Rev. Nathan Stone, Southboro'. (Ibid., Vol. II., 91.)

Hon. Jabez Fox, second son of Rev. John Fox, died Portland, Me., April 7, 1755, aged fifty. His first wife, a Boston lady, died soon after marriage [Aug. 5, 1746; was buried in Woburn. See epitaph 127.]

His second wife, Ann, widow of Phineas Jones, died June 9, 1758, aged 43. He graduated at Harvard College in 1727, studied divinity and became a preacher of the gospel. His health being affected by speaking in public, his slender constitution was unable to endure the onerous duties of the ministry, and thus he was forced to relinquish his intended favorite profession. He fixed his abode in the city where he eventually died, and was for a few years a member of the Executive Council of Massachusetts. (Ibid., Vol. I., Art. 118.)

Mary (Fox) Weld, daughter of Rev. John Fox, and wife of Rev. Habijah Weld, of Attleboro', Mass., died Jan. 7, 1799, aged 93. "Passenger, aspire not to her age, but to imitate her life, which was a real ornament to the Christian profession." (Gravestone.) Her daughter, Sarah Weld, married Rev. Timothy Alden, of Yarmouth, Mass. The latter were parents of Rev. Timothy Alden, of Newark, N. J., author of the valuable "Collections." (Vide ibid., Vol. I., 46.)

Alden cites the following notice of a "learned and remote ancestor of Mr. Fox," from a "very rare work," D. Pauli Freheri, Med. Noribergæ. Theatrum virorum eruditorum clarorum, in two vols., fol.: —

"Johannes Foxus, in comitatu Lancastriensi natus est, A. C. 1517. Cum Oxoniæ in collegio Magdalenensi Latinæ, Græ et Heb. linguarum cognitionem eximiam assecutus est, theologiam professus est in academia, regnante Edoardo VI., Sub regina Maria tyrannidem exercente apud Belgas exulavit.

"Anno 1559, regina Maria defuncta, remigravit in Angliam et summus extitit theologus, nullam vero sibi oblatam a regina Elizabetha dignitatem unquam amplecti voluit.

"Obiit tandem Londini 18 Ap. A. C. 1587, æt. 70. In ecclesia S. Egidii sepultus est. Filium reliquit Samuelem."

Daniel Thompson was admitted member of Woburn First Church, Oct. 7, 1759; and Phebe Thompson, wife of Daniel, was admitted member of the same, March 11, 1764. (Vide Church Manual, p. 10.) He lived in Central Square, where the late Capt. John I. Richardson's place is. On the morning of April 19, 1775, he rode to North Woburn to rouse the people to resist the foe. He declared his determination to oppose the enemy, even if he alone were to do it. Early in the afternoon during the retreat of the enemy from Concord, he was shot dead in Lincoln by a British grenadier. His remains and those of Asahel Porter, the other Woburn man who fell on that eventful day, were interred in Woburn on Friday, April 21, following. Before the interment, Rev. Josiah Sherman, of Woburn, delivered a very suitable sermon and prayer. A multitude of persons who assembled on the occasion from Woburn and the neighboring towns attended the remains to the grave. He was the son of William Porter, and was shot down by the British in the early part of the day on the Common at Lexington. Having previously been taken prisoner on their march, he was killed by his captors as he was endeavoring to effect his escape. (Vide Sewall's Woburn, 362; Frothingham's Siege of Boston, 64.)

COPY OF MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE.

"PROVINCE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE } SEABROOK, Oct. 3, 1773.

"This may certify whom it may concer.., that Mr Asahel Porter & Mrs. Abigail Brooks, both of Salem in the county of Essex, Province of Massachusetts Bay, are legally married by Mr. Samuel Perley, A. M , and pastor of Church att Seabrook.

"Test. JOHN BROOKS,
TIMOTHY BROOKS,
MARY KNOWLTON."

Mr. Samuel Perley's parish of Seabrook, New Hampshire, touching the seacoast and lying on the Massachusetts border, seems to have been a sort of Gretna Green for persons in this State a century ago. An instance in point is cited in History Cutter Family of New England, p. 48.

Abigail Brooks, married, as above, to Asahel Porter, "both of Salem," Oct. 3, 1773, was daughter of Capt. Timothy and Ruth (Wyman) Brooks, of Woburn, where she was born June 18, 1756, and baptized March 20, 1757. Her father was son of John and Mary (Richardson) Brooks, and grandson of John and Eunice (Mousall) Brooks, whose father, Henry Brooks, came to Woburn from Concord. As widow of Asahel Porter, killed at Lexington fight, April 19, 1775, as before stated, she married Ephraim Peirce (son of Jacob) (intention dated Nov. 30, 1782). Peirce died May 16, 1810, aged 52. Her death occurred Jan. 9, 1840, at the advanced age of 84. (Dr. Benjamin Cutter's MS.)

"Israel (Asahel) Porter was taken prisoner by the British when they were marching up in the morning. In attempting to escape from them he was killed and his body was found close by the stone wall below (Rufus) Merriam's garden, east of the (Lexington) Meeting house." (MS. narrative of Lexington battle by Levi Harrington, an eye-witness, 1846.) (See Middlesex Journal, April 26, 1873.)

"A Reminiscence. — Dr. Loring in his address at Lexington on the 19th, referred to Asahel Porter. This has reminded a gentleman of Woburn who was present last Wednesday, of an account of the death of Porter. It seems that Asahel Porter and —— Richardson set out on the morning of the battle to go to market. Richardson lived where Capt. Woodberry's store in Woburn now stands. They started for Boston and their route lay through West Cambridge. They were mounted on horses with their market stuff in panniers. Near West Cambridge they were halted by the advancing column of the British. In spite of their assertion that they were peaceable citizens, they were made prisoners and made to accompany the troops to Lexington. Here the British set them at liberty on condition they should 'go peaceably about their business. Richardson, walked off slowly, but Porter, after walking a few steps, started to run, when he was shot by the soldiers." (Middlesex County Journal, Saturday, May 6, 1871.)

IN

WOBURN SECOND BURIAL-GROUND.

FROM MANUSCRIPT COPY BY NATHAN WYMAN, ESQ., OF WOBURN, REVISED AND COMPARED WITH THE ORIGINAL STONES FOUND IN THE YARD, 1890, BY J. GERTRUDE MENARD.

CHRONOLOGICALLY ARRANGED, WITH BRIEF ILLUSTRATIVE NOTES BY WILLIAM R. CUTTER AND EDWARD F. JOHNSON.

INTRODUCTION.

The Second Burying-Ground was originally established by the Society of the First Parish in Woburn.

March 4, 1793 An article in a warrant of this date, for a meeting of this parish, is as follows: —

"To see if the Parish will do anything respecting the providing a new Burying Place."

March 18, 1793. The parish "voted, to choose a committee of three Persons to see if they can provide some suitable Burying place or places; and then made choice of Ens. Ichabod Parker, Mr. Daniel Reed, and Capt. Joseph Brown for that purpose, who are to report at the adjournment."

May 6, 1793. "The Committee informed the Parish that (they) had not agreed for any Burying Ground. The Parish then requested the committee to proceed further on the business; and if they succeeded, then to apply to the standing committee to call a meeting."

Feb. 4, 1794. Warrant: Art 4. "To see what the Parish will do respecting the report of their committee, who were chosen to provide a new Burying Place; and to do anything relating thereto, that the parish may think proper when met together."

Art. 5. "To see what the Parish will do respecting the Old Burying Ground."

March 17, 1794. "Voted to put off the articles of the Burying Place to the adjournment."

April 14, 1794. "Voted, that the Parish will purchase of Capt. Joseph Brown the land that was lately Zachariah Brooks, being near one acre, for the purpose of a Burying Yard, Capt. Brown to have for said Burying Ground — £37. 10. 0 — if paid in one month; otherwise to have — £39. 0. 0.* The Parish then chose Deacon Samuel Thompson, Deacon Obadiah Kendall, and Deacon Josiah Richardson, with the standing committee to fix the fence about said Burying yard, and make a gate, and arrange said Ground for Burying, and report their doings and the cost to the next meeting. And the same committee to fix upon the time when the new Burying place should be opened, and the old Burying place shut up: and then made choice of Josiah Fowle, Deacon Josiah Richardson, and Joseph Lawrence to find out the bounds of the old burying yard, in order that the same may be enclosed."

March 2, 1795. Warrant: Art. 6. "To see what the Parish will do respecting the report of a former committee, relative to the bounds of the old Burying yard, and also to see if the parish will proceed to enclose the same."

March 16, 1795. "Voted that the selectmen of Woburn be requested to report a clause in the warrant for April Meeting, to see if the Town will give the First Parish liberty to enclose the old Burying-Ground."

April 13, 1795. "The Parish voted to enclose the old Burying ground with fence; and made choice of Deacon Jeduthun Richardson, Mr. David Johnson, and Lieut. Joseph Lawrence, to see that said Burying yard was enclosed accordingly."

April 6, 1795. Warrant: Art. 2. "To see what the Parish will do respecting the Petition of Mr. Zachariah Richardson, and a number of other persons, requesting to have a Right in the New Burying yard on paying their proportionable part to the first Parish; or to do anything respecting said Petition that the Parish may think proper when met together; and also for the Parish whether said Petitioners pay their proportionable part towards inclosing the Old Burying yard.".

[COPY OF THE SAID PETITION.]

"We, the subscribers, who are at the date hereof members of the Baptist Society in Woburn, and who did formerly belong to the First Parish in said Woburn, hereby request of the First Parish in said Woburn, the Right of Burying all such persons of our respective families as may hereafter be removed by death in the new Burying yard, which the said

April 13, 1795. On above petition voted: "That any member belonging to the Baptist Society within the limits of the First Parish of Woburn, occupy the new Burying yard in said Parish in common with the said First Parish for the purpose of burying their dead, provided they pay their proportionable part according to their polls & estates in said First Parish for what said Burying yard cost; and also their part of enclosing the old Burying yard, and all such other necessary expense as may arise respecting both said burying yards. Provided also that said Baptists comply with this vote on or before the expiration of two months.

"Voted, that a copy of the foregoing vote be transmitted to the Petitioners, and the Clerk to perform the same."

June 15, 1795. "Voted that the time for the above to comply with above vote be lengthened to the last Monday of September next."

September 28, 1795. Met only and adjourned.

October 26, 1795. "The parish passed the following vote —

"That those Persons who are members of the Baptist Society in the First Parish of Woburn, who do not now own any Right in the new Burying yard, may have liberty to Bury their Dead in said new Burying yard, on paying to the Treasurer of said First Parish half one Dollar for each grave before the same be dug; and that said Treasurer give to those persons (who apply and pay as aforesaid) a certificate to the sexton, and that he dig the graves certified in said certificates -- they paying the sexton for digging said graves — and attend such funerals in the same manner as though they belonged to said First Parish."

At this period the town was divided into two parishes: the first now including the present towns of Woburn and Winchester; the second including what is now Burlington, and which was separated from the First Parish in 1730, and incorporated as the town of Burlington in 1799. In the First Parish at this time were only two religious societies. All inhabitants of the First Parish were rated as members of said parish, save those who belonged to the Baptist Society, which had come into existence, and secured this exemption a few years previously. The town of Winchester was incorporated in 1850. The Baptist Society, observe, was styled "The Baptist Society of the First Parish in Woburn"

April 4, 1796. Warrant: Art. 3. "To see if the Parish will admit the members of the Baptist Society that live within the limits of the Parish, to be proprietors in common with the present members of said Parish, in the new Burying yard; provided said Baptists pay their proportion of the cost and charges in the purchase and repairs of the new Burying yard, and enclosing the old Burying yard agreeable to their Petition, or do anything respecting the same that the Parish may think best when met together."

April 11, 1796. "Voted that the Baptist Society of the First Parish in Woburn, may become joint proprietors of the new Burying yard, upon their paying their money, or adequate security, to the Parish Committee of the First Parish in Woburn, their proportion of the first purchase money and the repairs that have been done on the same; and also their fencing the old Burying yard.

"Voted, that the standing committee of said Parish settle with the members of said Baptist Society according to the foregoing vote."

March 5, 1798. Warrant: Art. 9. "To see if the Parish will do anything respecting the Pall."

March 19, 1798. "Left (repairs of &c) Pall (or Grave Cloth) to discretion of the committee."

April 1, 1799. Warrant: Art. 11. "To see what the Parish will do respecting the Burying Yard."

April 29, 1799. "Voted that the standing committee take care of the Burying yard and conduct that article as they may think best for the interest of the Parish"

After the separation of the First and Second Parishes of the town by the incorporation of Burlington, in 1799, the First Parish and the town were in effect one and the same organization. Hence the town in 1806 and following years chose committees to take care of the meeting-house and burying-grounds in the limits of what had been the First Parish, articles being inserted in the warrants for town meetings for this purpose. The First Congregational Parish of Woburn was incorporated in the year 1816, and was the legitimate advancement of the old First Parish, preservative of the old organization. This body still retained the burying-yard. In a warrant of the parish dated March 7, 1823, is an article: Art. 8. "To see if the Parish will give liberty to Doct. Rufus Wyman to erect a tomb in the new burying ground, or do anything respecting the same."

April 14, 1823. "Voted, that liberty be given to Doct. Rufus Wyman to erect a Tomb in the new burying Ground, under the direction of the standing committee of the Parish."

April 5, 1823. Warrant: Art. 2. "To see if the Parish will take any measures to sell their burying ground to the town, or do anything respecting the same."

April 14, 1823. "Voted, that the Parish will take measures to sell their Burying Ground on advantageous and honorable terms for the Town and Parish." Committee of three by ballot "to have discretionary orders to confer with the committees of the Town, and make such agreement with said committee as they shall think proper, and report to the Parish their doings." Bartholomew Richardson, Calvin Richardson, and Jonas Hale were this committee.

April 21, 1823. "Voted, that the Parish take measures to sell their burying ground to the Town for the sum of $1' 2.50. Voted, to authorize their Treasurer to convey to the Town by deed the burying ground, and take the Town's security for the same."

March 9, 1824. Warrant: Art. 9. "To see if the Parish will direct their Treasurer to give a deed to the Town of their burying ground, or do anything," etc.

March 22, 1824. "Voted, to dismiss."

In 1824, the First Church voted that a bell on their meeting-house, procured previously by subscription, should be tolled at funerals. This was probably the origin of that custom in Woburn.

Family. A very industrious & ingenious
Tradesman, a real good neighbour,
Social & confident Friend, very regular &
Just in all his dealings, & to conclude
All his moral Virtues an Honest Man.
Oh Death, thou Victor of the human frame
The soul's poor fabric trembles at thy name
How long shall man be urged to dread thy sway
For those whom thou'd untimely take away."

Nathan Parker, born in Woburn, Feb. 21, 1769, son of Josiah and Mary Parker.

Nathan Parker and Polly Richardson, both of Woburn, were married Nov. 10, 1793.

Polly Parker (Mrs. Nathan Parker) admitted member of First Church, Sept. 2, 1804. (Church Manual, p. 14.)

The account of the accident which caused Parker's, Wright's, and Richardson's deaths is the following extract from the first newspaper article ever published by W. R. Cutter. It formed part of an article printed by him in the Woburn Journal for Feb. 6, 1869: —

THE FALL OF THE CLAPP HOUSE FRAME, JULY 14, 1807.

On July 14, 1807, an important event occurred in Woburn, which veiled the entire community with sorrow, and proved long the common topic of conversation in all the region round about. This memorable occurrence, not noticed in our admirable town history, recently published, is well remembered by the aged among us. We refer to the lamentable accident at the building of the "Clapp Mansion," that large, square house of three stories, standing until a recent date at Central Square. It was the fashion to rear the frame of the sides of the dwellings complete; and "raisings," as they were called, were rendered important in the eyes of the general public by the provision of the usual popular entertainment for all strangers attending not invited to private houses.

Major Jeremiah Clapp, Esq., being a man of wealth and importance, the erection of the frame of his dwelling, of more than ordinary dimensions, commanded an unusual attendance of guests and assistants. Two sides of the mansion, to be of brick, put in after the frame was raised, were ill supplied with the necessary braces. Consequently, when the timbers intended for the crown roof were passed to the top of the structure, together with thirty or more persons to construct the same, it was casually noticed by certain of the spectators that the frame leaned perceptibly to the west. The raising was nearly finished, the hour of six had arrived, and the expectant workmen hopefully ruminated on the prospective festivity of the evening. The frame leans more discernibly than before; it is too late to avoid the calamity; all efforts are in vain; the frame falls with an awful crash, heard miles distant. A cry of agony ensues, too fearful to be ever forgotten; the spectators stand aghast at the catastrophe. Then followed a confusion that baffles description. There was a rush to extricate those buried in the ruins.

Joshua Richardson and Samuel Wright, young men of promise, were instantly killed, and their bodies were removed, horribly mangled. John Lyman, of North Woburn, after excruciating suffering, died the same night. Nathan Parker, an industrious and ingenious tradesman, died during the week, leaving a wife and five children "to lament the loss of one of the best of husbands and fathers." Thirty or forty individuals, "the strong men of our town," were wounded in an inconceivable variety of ways. Some lingered months, and even years, until death eventually relieved them of pain. Others were crippled for life, and many gradually recovered from their injuries. Jonathan Tidd, of North Woburn, had his back broken, and never walked readily afterwards. Capt. Ishmael Munroe, of Burlington, Deacon Benjamin Wyman, Capt. John Edgell, Josiah Parker, Jonathan Thompson, Jacob Converse, and many others of prominence, were likewise among the wounded.

The funeral of Richardson, Wright, and Lyman was held in the Third Meeting-House. Rev. Joseph Chickering, the pastor, preached an appropriate discourse to a large and sorrowing audience, from the text: "And, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee." Job i. 19.

Richardson and Wright were both about to be married, and their bereaved ladies appeared with the chief mourners at the obsequies. The gravestones of Richardson, Wright, and Parker are found in the Second Burying-Ground, adorned with inscriptions uniquely descriptive of their several virtues, and eulegistic of the merit thus untimely lost to the town.

He was son of the venerable Deacon Ebenezer Lawrence, long a prominent citizen of the town, and at the time of his death was a student at college. Nor vainly fast or weep;
The child, tho' dead, is yet alive,
And only fall'n asleep.

LONGEVITY IN WOBURN.

By William R. Cutter.

Longevity. — Closely connected with the subjects last treated * are the facts of longevity. A list of all the persons found in the records to the present time, who have died in Woburn at the age of 80 years and over, has been made; and the list is much longer than might be supposed, the later years, owing to the increased population and the improved methods of subsistence, showing a large number. Previous to the Revolution, it was not customary to record the ages in the town records, and such ages as are found are taken from gravestones. The town record of deaths begins in 1642. The first recorded age of a person over 80 is in 1699. For one hundred years, to 1799, the list is a short one. For the half-century from 1799 to 1850, the list is a longer one; and from 1850 to the present time, it is longer than all the rest put together.

From 1699 to 1799, the whole number is 68; over 90 are 18. The name of Richardson is represented by 8 persons; Johnson, by 6; Wright, 5; Reed, 4; Wyman, 4; Symmes, 3; all others, 38. Of 95 years and over, are 10; 1, 95; 5, 96; 1, 97; 1, 98; and 2, 99. The names of these very aged persons were as follows: —

James Converse, 1715, 95; Judith Tyng (widow of Col. Jonathan), 1736, 99; George Reed, 1756, 96; Abigail Baldwin (widow of Henry), 1771, 96; Catherine Spear (widow of John), 1775, 96; Mr. Perry, 1777, 98; Judith Proctor, 1783, 96; Samuel Carter, 1787, 96; Rebecca Russell (widow of Samuel), 1791, 99; Joseph Johnson, 1798, 97.

From 1799 to 1850, the whole number is 115; over 90 are 22. The name of Richardson is represented by 20 persons; Thompson, by 7; Reed, 6; Johnson, 5; Kendall, 5; Converse, 4; Leathe, 4; Wyman, 4; all others, 60. Of 95 years and over, are 8; over 100, 2; over 110, 1; the oldest being accredited with the age of 115. There are 5 of 96; 1 of 98; 1 of 104; and 1 of 115 years of age. The names of these were as follows: —

Chloe, a black (belonging to Medford), 1804, 104; Joseph Richardson, 1823, 96; Prince Walker, a black man, 1825, 115; Widow Holden, 1830, 96; Abel Richardson, 1831, 96; Edward Richardson, 1837, 96; Keziah Thompson, 1845, 96; Abigail Flagg, 1847, 98.

From 1850 to Aug. 30, 1889, the whole number is 330; over 90, 44; over 100, 3. Two are accredited with the age of 110; 1 was 101; 2 were 99; 2, 97; 1, 96; 2, 95. The names of the ten oldest were as follows: —

* That is, the burial-grounds.

Susanna Ash, 1854, 95 years, 9 months; Mary McLaughlin, 1864, 97; Mary Richardson, 1864, 99 years, 7 months, 14 days; Jesse Converse, 1864, 99 years, 5 months, 8 days; Joshua Converse, 1868, 101 years, 16 days; Ellen O'Neil, 1872, 96 years, 5 months, 16 days; Ruth Wood, 1882, 95 years, 22 days; Dolly Taylor, 1882, 97 years, 2 months, 25 days; Mary McVicker, 1885, 110; Jane Burkeland, 1888, 110.

The ages in the above list are those given in the town records. In the case of very aged persons, the estimated age is apt to be placed too high In the last century, the contemporary diarist would often record that such and such a person died "aged 90 or more"; "92 or more"; "aged 96 or 97"; "almost 100," etc.; showing a praiseworthy caution in accepting the facts currently stated; and our examination of such data shows that the lesser number given is nearer the truth; as, for instance, the person "aged 90 or more," is actually found to be 90, or more nearly 90 than any other age. It is also true that there appears to be very little examination, if any, of the local records, in many of these cases, to ascertain the exact date of birth; the friends evidently falling back upon the old habit of fixing the years by comparison with the dates of occurrences that were believed to have happened about the same time; and, in this, they depended much on their memory, not depending on accurate chronological records, which were not generally kept. There is no reason to doubt, however, that the persons mentioned were very old, and that they all had lived till they were upwards of a century, even if the time of their birth is not substantiated by the presence of accurate written records. The facts we have given may not be valuable scientifically, but are interesting historically. It will be noticed that three of the oldest persons in our list are blacks, aged respectively, 104, 110, and 115; these ages may be much exaggerated, but it is a fact stated by scientists, that while the life of a negro in Africa may be short, the negro, when transplanted to America, enjoys a longer life, longer, perhaps, on an average, than the majority of the whites. Thus there are many centenarians among that race. A few particulars regarding the persons whose names we have cited as instances of extreme longevity are here given.

Of the first group (1699–1799), James Converse, died "in the 95th year of his age," — gravestone,— was the last survivor of the thirty-two subscribers to the town orders of Woburn, 1640, or of the original Woburn settlers of that year. He came to this country with his father, Edward Converse, when he was about ten years old. Judith Tyng was formerly the wife of the Rev. Jabez Fox, of Woburn, and daughter of the elder Rev. John Reyner, minister of Plymouth, and of Dover, N. H., also. She died "in the 99th year of her age," — gravestone,— on which she is said to have been "a woman of most exemplary virtue and piety, rich in grace, ripe for glory." Her epitaph is given by her descendant Alden, Coll., I., 229; also in Sewall's Woburn, 142. The Rev. Timothy Alden, Coll., I., 225, published in 1814, gives also an extended account of the family of Rev.

Jabez Fox, his ancestor. Savage does not give the date of birth of Judith (Reynel-Fox) Tyng, but credits her as the issue of her father's second marriage, which occurred in 1642. According to her gravestone, her birth would appear to have occurred in 1638; and if she was the issue of a marriage that occurred in 1642, her age is evidently overstated. There is this to say, however; her family connections by blood and marriage were of the highest to be found in the Colonies, both for intelligence and wealth, and weight of character, and Savage may be mistaken in assigning her as the child of a later marriage of her father, when she may have been a child of an earlier marriage, or of his first. We cannot believe otherwise than that her family connections were persons of sufficient intelligence to know her precise age, and that they saw to it that her age was correctly given on her gravestone.

She is also the person referred to in the papers on the Fox-Jackson ministerial controversy in Woburn, where an ex-parte council of Mr. Jackson's own choosing, in December, 1746, passed an unfavorable judgment upon his conduct, touching that part of Article 6, of the accusations of the complainants against him, in which, after the Rev. John Fox and his wife had put up a note desiring that the death of their "aged mother" might be sanctified, etc., Mr. Jackson then prayed in a manner highly unbecoming to a Christian minister.

GEORGE REED died "in the 96th year of his age,"—gravestone,—was a deacon, and was born in Woburn, Sept. 14, 1660; his age was therefore correctly given as his 96th year, since he was actually 95 years, 4 months, 6 days old. (Cf. Sewall's Woburn, 631, 632; History Reed Fam., 105.)

ABIGAIL BALDWIN was Abigail Fisk before marriage. Samuel Thompson, Esq., the diarist, says her age was "96 or 97" when she died, and her name is the first in his consecutive list of deaths. She was born in Cambridge, "1. 2. 1674" [April 1, 1674]. (Cambridge Records.) She was therefore about 96 years, 9 months, and her age, as stated above, is quite correctly given. (Cf. Paige's Cambridge, 546; Hudson's Lexington, 69, 70; Vinton's Richardson Memorial, 44, 45.)

CATHERINE SPEAR and Mr. PERRY. These two were temporary residents it is supposed, in the town, on account of the Revolutionary War. The town contained a number of refugees at that period. Neither are their names those of long-standing Woburn families at that time. "Old Mrs. Spear" died, aged "almost 100," says S. Thompson in his list; but he omits all mention of old Mr. Perry. In the absence of other data of a definite character, the presumption is that the facts of very advanced age, as given in the cases of these two old persons, are evidently correct.*

* The Widow Spear resided in Rev. John Marrett's parish (Woburn Second Precinct, now Burlington), and he attended her funeral, which occurred on Nov. 30, 1775. John Spear, probably her husband, was one of the original members of the Burlington, or Woburn, Precinct Church, 1735. She was, therefore, a more permanent resident than the statement above made would imply.

JUDITH PROCTOR. The same remarks in the above two cases apply in part to this. She is not mentioned in S. Thompson's list. We have no definite information, other than the record of her death.

SAMUEL CARTER. "Capt. Samuel Carter," says S. Thompson, "died," and was "buried this week" (Jan. 21–27, 1787), "aged 92 years or more." Died Jan. 21, 1787, aged 92, according to gravestone at Arlington. He was born in Woburn, Oct. 31, 1694, and, at his death, was actually 92 years, 2 months, 20 days. His age, as given in the records, is therefore overstated, the record of the diarist and the gravestone being right. (Cf. Sewall's Woburn, 598; Cutter's Cutter Family, 44, 377; Cutter's Arlington, 201, 202.)

REBECCA RUSSELL. "Widow Russell died, aged about 98," says S. Thompson in diary. Her maiden name was Kendall. She was born in Woburn, Jan. 26, 1694–5. Her actual age at death was 96 years, 6 months, or 96½. Her age, as given in the records, was therefore overstated. (Cf. Sewall's Woburn, 621; Locke's Book of the Lockes, 28; N. E. Hist. Gen. Reg., XXXIX., 20).

JOSEPH JOHNSON. "Lieut. Joseph Johnson, 2d Parish, died, aged 97," remarks S. Thompson in his diary. He was born in Woburn, Feb. 9, 1701–2. If this date is correct, his age is but little overstated; and if 1701 is the year, 97 years is right. (Cf. Poole's W. W. Prov. introd. cli.)

Of the second group (1799–1850), CHLOE, the black, is described by S. Thompson in his diary as an "aged negro woman," dying in Woburn, but "buried at Medford"; she being "said to be 100 years old."

JOSEPH RICHARDSON was born in Woburn, Feb. 9, 1726–7. His age was therefore correctly stated. (Cf. Vinton's R. Mem., 254, 255, and his Vinton Mem., 389.)

PRINCE WALKER, the black man, was an interesting character. He was the servant or slave of the Rev. Timothy Walker, the first minister of Concord, N. H. The master originated in Woburn, and the slave is supposed to have originated here also, though his birth is not discoverable on the records. That he died at the Woburn almshouse, after an extended residence there, would show that he was probably a native of the town. The Countess of Rumford, grand-daughter of Rev. Timothy Walker, alludes to him in her memoirs. (Cf. Ellis's Life of Rumford, 228; Diaries of Rev. Timothy Walker, ed. 1889, 25, 30, 31, 32, 35, 37, 38, 44, 45; Bouton's Concord, N. H., 252, 253.)

WIDOW HOLDEN. No further definite information. A reference to the church records has led to an examination of the early printed church catalogues for the full name of this person, and in that of 1827, the name of Abigail Holden, adm., Nov., 1817, is found; alive in 1827, — called Mrs. William Holden, in that of 1832, in which her name is erased as a person deceased; the copies referred to being marked copies belonging to the church officers.

ABEL RICHARDSON. "Æt. 96," — gravestone. He was born in Woburn,

Oct. 23, 1736. His age, at death, therefore, would be 94 years, 7 months, 4 days. Ætatis signifies "year of age"; the equivalent of the phrase "in the —th year of his (or her) age," so frequently used on the stones in the First (or earliest) Burying-Ground. Abel Richardson was interred in the Second Burying-Ground. He evidently died in his 95th year, and his age in the records and on the gravestone is overstated. (Cf. Vinton's R. Mem., 257, and his Vinton Mem., 390; Thompson's Thompson Mem., 33.)

Edward Richardson. "Æt. 96," — gravestone. He was born in Reading, Aug. 25, 1743, and his age at death was 94 years, 2 months, 22 days. His age in the records and on the gravestone is therefore overstated. The gravestone in the Second Burying-Ground was "erected by Job Richardson," a son. (Cf. Vinton's R. Mem. 251, 252; Vinton Mem. 388, 389.)

Keziah Thompson. Unmarried. Born in Woburn, Feb. 15, 1747–8. Age at death, 97 years, 25 days, if the year of birth is correctly placed. She was certainly 96 years old, and her age as given in the records is not overstated. (Cf. Thompson's Thompson Mem., 33.)

Abigail Flagg. The Guide-post, Woburn, Feb. 4, 1847, under deaths, has this notice, "In this town, Widow Abigail Flagg, 99 years," — one year more than the age credited to her in the records. She was born at Wilmington, March 9, 1747–48, and her age, therefore, would be 98 years, 10 months, 22 days, if the double date is correctly placed. One authority says she was born March 9, 1747; while another says the date was March 9, 1748. The earlier date would make her age 99. Her maiden name was Thompson. (Cf. Thompson's Thompson Mem., 37.)

Mary Richardson. Unmarried. Born in Woburn, Aug. 18, 1764, daughter of Abel Richardson, of the second group. Her age is correctly given in the records. Her birthplace was Reading, according to an extended notice of her death in Woburn Townsman. (Cf. Vinton's R. Mem., 257, and his Vinton Mem., 390; Woburn Journal, deaths, April 2, 1864; Woburn Townsman, April 1, 1864.)

Jesse Converse. Born in Woburn, Feb. 9, 1765. (Cf. Sewall's Woburn, 606; Woburn Journal, deaths, and brief notice, July 23, 1864; also a long notice in Woburn Townsman, July 22, 1864; also N. E. Hist. Gen. Reg., XII., 224; XVIII., 378.)

Joshua Converse. Born in Woburn, Jan. 20, 1767. Brother of the preceding. (Cf. Sewall's Woburn, 606, 607; Woburn Journal, notices, Feb. 23, 1867; Feb. 8, 15, 22, 1868; N. E. Hist. Gen. Reg., XII., 224.)

MARY MCVICKER. Unmarried. Native of Greenock, Scotland. (Cf. notice in Woburn Advertiser, Oct. 22, 1885, where a belief in her still greater age is expressed.)

JANE BURKELAND. Colored. Born a slave in Richmond, Va. (Cf. Woburn Advertiser, May 17, 1888, and Woburn Journal, May 18, 25, 1888, deaths and notices. In the latter it is stated that she had seen Gen. Washington.)
